

AYLMER UNITED CHURCH (Aylmer, Quebec)- opening for a short-term appointment, effective September 1, 2018 while the pastoral charge conducts a joint needs assessment and search process. The congregation is looking for a half-time minister (20 hours per week) who would use their time in preparing and presenting a Sunday morning worship service, attending the monthly church council meeting, attending Sunday school planning meetings and possibly conducting a confirmation class, discussing church music selections with the music director, and dealing with crisis situation pastoral care. Office work should all be dealt with by the administrative assistant and the bulletin secretary.
